

Are you looking for a fun and exciting career where you can help improve others lives and well-being? Do you enjoy building relationships in your community?

Our mission is to help others secure gainful, yet meaningful employment that will enhance their independence.

The Vocation Depot is a Non-profit Employment Services Organization partnered with the State of FL, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, assisting People with Disabilities prepare for, find, and retain Employment.

Position: Volunteer Job Coach

Employment Status: Volunteer

Volunteer Job Coach Role:

- Job coaching, mentoring, counseling, training, etc. for people with disabilities
- Commit to helping members overcome barriers in everyday life and barriers in job retention
- Collaborate with lead Employment Specialist as questions or concerns arise
- Communication with employers to obtain feedback about members' work performance

Work Environment:

- All Job Coaches work remote, spending majority of their time with customers and/or employers in the community.
- This is a volunteer position, working 10-12 hours per week, depending on current need. Possible evening or weekend help needed at times

Education & Experience Requirements:

- Four years' experience or employment in a public vocational rehabilitation program; experience in job placement, job coaching, or counseling; or other related experience working with persons with disabilities or related degree.

Other Requirements:

- Selected candidate will be required to pass a Level 2 background check
- Selected candidate will need to obtain Best Practices in Supported Employment Certification – paid for by The Vocation Depot before any job coaching can begin.